

matkrah

My first trail race of 2020, my first race since the covid-19 pandemic started. Let's hope that it won't be the last this year.

I started @chiemgauerhundert just being grateful to do exactly that. Tough times in the heat, especially in the climb to Hörndlwand and a charging @kirschbaummax behind. The gratitude never left me and followed me all the way to a 1st place over the 100k distance. Chiemgauer100 is a unique race over here as it keeps a fantastic old school US vibe. Fortunately, the race will be going the next year.

Congrats to the king of the Chiemgauer100 @trailtomwagner, who managed to win the 100 miler for the sixth consecutive time. Thanks to @summitsforthesoul and @silke.buzzi for valuable support and crushed ice.

 @summitsforthesoul

